Chapter 1 by Tigwan

I don't know anything about why I am here or why I am tied to a chair in the middle of this dark smelly room. All I can remember is that my name is Tom and I live in the middle of England. My clothes are soaking wet and to make it worse I can't even see if there is a door in here. This tall man suddenly walks into the room and all of the memories start to flood back.

Chapter 2 by Tigwan

I remember being down at the shops. I was just leaving when I got hit in the head with something cold, as I got dragged along the car park into a Purple van. When I finally saw the man's face it left me horrified.
